Privacy Policy

DTB Investments Limited respects your right to privacy.

Any details which you give to us via this web site may be added to our database.

The database is used by DTB Investments Limited (and third parties acting on its behalf) for client administration and marketing related purposes.

We know how important it is to protect your personal data. When we ask for any personal data, or give you the opportunity to supply such data, it is solely to provide the service or information you have requested.

We may, from time to time, send you mailings which you have requested or we feel may interest you and/or are relevant to your business. Such mailings may include details of our products and services; newsletters; briefing notes and legal updates; and invitations to our various training seminars and other events.

We do not give personal data to third parties, unless required to do so by law or as you may otherwise consent, but we may share it within our company.

If you would like to see the information we hold about you or would like to be removed from any of our mailing lists, please write to our marketing department at the address below.

To help us keep our database up-to-date, we would be grateful if you would let us know as soon as any of your contact details change or if you notice any inaccuracies in them.

In accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, DTB Investments Limited is registered as a 'Data Controller' on the public Register of Data Controllers as maintained by the Information Commissioner. Our registration number is Z5063466.

We may change our privacy policies from time to time, in which case we will post the changes on this page so that you are always aware of our policies.

In addition to any personal data supplied by you, we may collect the following information:

E-mail addresses. If you supply an e-mail address to us, it is kept in confidence and used solely to answer your enquiry or to comply with your request. We retain the content of the form or e-mail, the e-mail address and our response. This enables us to retain an audit trail of our contact and provide you with the product, service or information you may have requested.

Telephone numbers. If you request a telephone call you consent to us using the information provided. In addition, we will ask for a contact telephone number on general enquiry forms which will allow us to contact you if we encounter problems with e-mail. We will only contact you by telephone between the of 8am to 8pm Monday to Friday and 9am to 5pm Saturday and Sunday unless you consent to or request contact outside those hours.

Upon completion, to ensure that your personal data does not appear when the computer is next used, you should logout of the Service and close the web browser. DTB Investments Limited cannot accept any liability for your failure to do so.

Third party websites are not covered by our privacy policies.

We will never ask you for security information, such as your PIN number, you must keep this secure, and shouldn't disclose it to anyone. There have been a number of fake e-mail scams asking people to go to a website and enter confidential information such as credit card numbers or login details. DTB Investments Limited will never send an e-mail asking for any policy/account numbers or security details to be recorded online. If you receive such an e-mail you should delete it immediately without responding.
